Excel Income Statement Template – Review of 2012 Summary We've already had our annual peak, known as "the year of the cowboy", "the year of the bear", "the year of the sheep", and now, "the year of the monkey". Unfortunately, that's where our headline comes from, "the year of the monkey". For 2012, we've added new software, made some updates to the existing software, made the process of importing templates much easier and more intuitive. The other key factor is that we've simplified our payment process, added more payment processors to our platform, and made the most of our one-click feature. Today, I'd like to tell you about what we've done for 2012, but first, I'd like to give you a quick introduction to some basic info about how our software works. Software Introduction This year we changed the way our software handles your templates. We've simplified the process a lot and made it much easier to use. You
