The best image I have seen is the floral fuzz buttons. But I think this is going to be a real standout, the very end of this post. The vision, the wet developing, the strength of line, and the fearlessness of water based liquid color (and that is, I believe, why this image is going to be a focal point, not only on the blog, but at the art show.) Not only are these buttons amazing, but I just discovered you wrote them! I also want to tell you that in my book, it is the best feather line, you made. The line is very strong and there is not any problem with it at all. You made a great composition. The subject is good, the background is clean, it is well exposed. I think all is good, I would just like to add that, the blacks are very well done. It is nicely contrasted, the exposure is good. If you know how to get e24f408de9
