Joseph Graziotin Joseph Graziotin (born 1943) is a former police officer with the Maryland Transit Administration who is currently serving a life sentence in Maryland State Prison for the 1986 murder of his wife. Early life Joseph Graziotin, who was born in 1943, grew up in Baltimore, Maryland. In 1965, he graduated from the Baltimore City Police Academy in Frederick, Maryland. Career After graduating the police academy, Joseph worked in Baltimore as a motorcycle cop and an officer with the Baltimore Police Department. He was detailed to the Maryland Transit Administration Police in 1980. His first encounter with the Montgomery County Police Department was at the BWI Airport when he pulled over a suspected illegal alien in December 1982. In 1985, Joseph worked as a detective in the Chester Police Department where he began an affair with his first wife. Police believed that the motive behind the murder of his first wife, Patricia, was not money. Police suspected that he killed her for revenge. Murder of Patricia Graziotin Joseph Graziotin married Patricia in 1980 when she was 30 years old. She had two children, one of them being a daughter with a disability. During their marriage, Patricia had been charged with assaulting and battering him. Police believed that in 1984 or 1985, Joseph was having an affair with another woman. On the night of 27 February 1985, when Joseph was alone with his second wife, he began to beat her. He then pulled out a handgun and shot her to death. Police found Patricia Graziotin dead on her bed with a bullet hole in her head on 28 February 1985. Joseph told police that he had been at the bar until he became intoxicated, and they were separated when he left. Police assumed that Joseph committed this crime for revenge because
