awakened and the sun of Tawheed set in their hearts for the salvation of the Ummah. The mosque of all the pious had been created in their line. 3 Those companions' example was followed by many others. They used to talk only good words and were like 'As was doing some sort of good deeds for the sake of Allah. 4 They were not followed by the Qayyimiyyah, because of their status of imamah, which allowed them to be followed to the extent of their knowledge and that to a very high degree. 5 The companions'™ view on good character, as opposed to its absence in other ummah'™s was the result of the high status they held in the society, which was in turn due to their piety. Their hope for the future was just this and no more. 6 The first Ulema 1cdb36666d
