Rohit Sharma says his IPL run-out was a 'welcome distraction' (Twitcam) 22 Apr 2018 14:29 - An Article It was 17th match of a riveting tournament that brought out the underdogs (Foxes v Bulls) to topple the favourites (Rishabh Pant v Virat Kohli) to stay in contention in the race for the prestigious ICC Test Championship. Non-selection for the fourth and final Test against Bangladesh on July 2 has not deterred India's most unlikely player from enjoying every moment of the IPL - with the whacky ways he likes to play the game. With his first-ball duck in the semi-final against the Delhi Daredevils, Rohit set the world on fire as he gave his side an opening - aww, even the other players, too. A moment later, he stamped out a trail of eight dot balls as he also lost his wicket to a Yasir Shah bouncer. "I am sorry to miss out," Rohit, who has been ruled out of the India tour of England, told reporters at the post-match press conference. "I had good runs in the tournament. It was a welcome distraction." Zaheer Khan took 10 wickets in four matches to lead Mumbai's fightback with the death of opener Joe Root over a visiting hundred in the final. Victor Trumper took only four wickets in seven Australian Tests in 1923-24 as England won the Ashes 3-2 but he was crowned 'The Australian of the Year', becoming the most recognisable Australian cricketer of the period. It's a shout-out from the E Street Band to the fans who've been instrumental in keeping the band's original sound alive, as they commence a farewell tour with a performance of new songs as part of their The Final Frontier North American Tour. After the April 2 show at the Mid-Atlantic Center for the Arts in Lancaster, Penn., the band will tour small venues, concluding on May 26 at the High Sierra Music Festival in Rhinelander, Wis. The show will include music from 'The Promise', the 2013 Grammy-nominated album from Bruce Springsteen and the E Street Band, as well as some fan favourites from around the release of 'High Hopes' in 2016. "I have to say how great it is to be touring with The E Street Band and
