The Elden Ring is an action RPG that explores the worldwide fantasy legend born from the “Narnia” and “Lone Ranger” media. It is the story of a man who, in a distant future, must travel between reality and its counterpart, the Lands Between, to save the world. The Lands Between are a world of scattered, illusory fantasy where traces of the real world gradually vanish and fantasy reigns supreme. The Lands Between is connected to the real world in the form of a rift. The Lands Between is at the center of the Elden Ring story, the fantasy world in which the player takes on the role of a young man named Tarnished, born in this world. The player begins the game in the real world, where the remnants of the Lands Between are gradually dissipating due to social changes. As the main character, Tarnished, the only survivor of a disaster that wiped out humanity, leaves his hometown and ventures into the Lands Between, he must search for a way to rescue his comrades and the people he left behind. With the power of the Elden Ring, he can gather allies from the lands, combat monsters, and make enduring friendships. The name Elden, which derives from the Latin word “via,” means “way,” and “Ring,” the name of an ancient and holy object from the Lands Between, means “circle.” You have obtained the permission from Nintendo Co., Ltd., and have paid the required fee, but we need to confirm your identification before giving you access to the game. "Considering the time to complete a raid, it doesn't start to feel long at all. You get a decent amount of stuff when fighting bosses and during your exploits. There's tons of things to do and see. In short, you will get a great amount of things to do and see before the next comes along. The dungeons are the best part. There are no in-game tutorials, so you'll just have to figure them out on your own. The best thing to do is to just keep an open mind and explore the dungeons. You will see what to do to solve puzzles and a lot of secrets will be revealed. The battles are also fun, as you'll just have to use the right skills to defeat enemy characters. In the end, there are eight dungeons, so you should have a lot of fun. Another good thing is the fact that you can travel between them freely. Now, the gameplay will require a bit of adjustment to fit your playing style. The fact that you can't control your characters will take some getting used to. But once you get the hang of it, you'll just be having loads of fun. Since you always travel with your teammates, there are always plenty of people to team with. Even when you need to go solo, you can just teleport to your friendly NPC. There's tons to do and see in Tarnished. Besides the travel between dungeons, you can also travel between Realms. Your objective is to find a portal and travel to the Old World. Along the way, you can explore friendly NPC towns to get quests, gain loot, and trade with them. A number of things are available for trade. But you have to know what to look out for and where to find it. In the end, Tarnished will keep you busy for quite a while. Just make sure you have a lot of space for storage." "There's just a great atmosphere in this game. The graphics are nice and detailed, and the music will keep you on your toes. There's also a ton of things to do and see, but without proper guidance, it's tough to know what to do. The main problem with this game is that it's not very easy to actually complete the quests. There's some help in the form of NPC assistants, but you still have to be careful when leveling up and taking quests." "No online chat. You just have to wait to see if anyone is nearby and if they will accept your invitation to bff6bb2d33"

Alpine skiing at the 1928 Winter Olympics - Women's downhill The women's downhill event at the 1928 Winter Olympics was held on Friday, February 7, 1928. The gold medal was won by Karl Åsbacka of Sweden. The event consisted of a 10 kilometre downhill run over ten gates at various elevations. The racers, each carrying a flag, skied on single runners attached to toboggans. The course was downhill at most points, but there were two parts due to the terrain. There were a total of nine competitors from eight nations. The event was held on a day where there was clear, sunny skies and temperatures below freezing. Because of the severe weather, the event was moved to the Bobsledders' Trails. Most of the competitors had trouble keeping up with the pace, and the first run was held at an average speed of 48 kilometers per hour. All the nine women's competitors reached the finish line without being slowed, and the gold medal was awarded to Karl Åsbacka who was one of the last racers to depart the course. He won by a commanding margin of 14 seconds to win the gold medal. His time was slightly slower than that of the silver medalist Helene Schneider of Switzerland who finished in a time of 48.5 seconds. Medalists Source: - the French team won the silver medal with a time of 48.5 seconds.
