The land here also contains lakes and there are many interesting fish who help the player. The beautiful lakes and streams can be used to reach the other continents, scattered around the world, with how to swim floating in water or on the back of floating water. If there are ghosts present in these rivers, you can communicate with them by using it.

Even if you leave behind the mainland for some time, memories of you will be left when you return. Will you be able to return to this world?
