I'm getting the following messages and I cannot perform a web upload. I have tried to clear the cookies and cache and reinstall Java. Other users in this forum are experiencing this problem and have been unable to fix it. I have followed the instructions here and it still hasn't helped. I have had enough of this problem and need help. I have searched and searched and have not been able to find a solution. Can anyone help me?? A: All is working well, just tested and posted the solution. * - upper case only, upper case and lower case are not acceptable * - upper case only, upper case and lower case are not acceptable – '''[Ubuntu Security Notice 547-1]''' - updates for several security issues are now available.
