MSE-AC-1FT-1.EUR is installed, but most of my computer errors are still happening. (I'm trying to help solve the problem before I call tech support. So far it has been useless.) This is the list of errors I get today. I'm running a Z350 with an i7 processor and 16gb of ram. It's running on a SSD, but I can't tell which program I need to look up on my SSD because I don't have access to it. I don't think I need to be worrying about how much RAM I have. I get sent my alerts regardless. The scan from @Ender showed something interesting. I had AVG spyware on my PC. I disabled it before posting. After that, the AVG error went away. I'm not sure if that means anything. I did not see anywhere in my AVG folder or registry where it was hiding. But whatever AVG spyware was on the computer, it was enough to cause this problem. It also may have infected any other files it found on my computer. I am having problems with deleting programs. I can't keep the list down below 2 items. It keeps moving them over. That is not 100% bad. It means that you cannot find these programs in their proper place yet. Try using the program CCleaner (6d1f23a050
