The adventurer felt as though he was looking at one of the illustrations on a tarot card: the thirteenth card of the Major Arcana. The constellations that were forming in the sky had been formed in the Womb. The traveller walked straight up to the naked man who was going to pull him up. A huge pink nipple appeared in the white area of the heart, and finally a giant nipple emerged over the moon. The shadow was no longer moving. It had become an enormous chest, and beneath it the shadow of a perfectly shaped head. Towards the centre of the face, the sky came alive. A mouth opened, then closed again. The luminous tongue also descended. The mouth opened wide and said: "Not bad." The astronaut shook off the hands of the naked man who tried to pull him up, and jumped down into the lake. The lake disappeared under the water. There was a series of big bubbles, which burst in a cloud of foam. The astronaut saw a woman wearing an immaculate white dress walking towards him. She had blond hair, and she smiled at him. "Are you happy?" he asked. "I'm not tired yet. I'm still waiting." The moon emerged from the clouds, and made the lips of the astronaut smile. He made a few twists and turns, using the water's energy. He climbed up the walls of the well like a swimmer. He heard sounds. A pink tongue touched his lips. He bit, and the tongue withdrew. Another tongue touched his lips. He pulled and it withdrew. It was a dragon, a dragon with a belly full of wine, a dragon of fire. He saw himself swallowing, and the liquid was distasteful. Suddenly it seemed to him that his mouth was full of gold. He felt his eyes turned to glass, like beads in the back of his eyelids. It was a huge lake of wine, which dried up and was replaced by water. He saw the constellation of the Womb, interlaced with ancient legends, and then, in the sky, the Womb drew his attention. A magnificent he-goat arose, like an arc of
