Crack ~UPD~ [3D PC ~ DAZ Poser] Victoria 4 ~ Elite Bundle

Daniel Favalora earned an Oscar for his adaptation of James Jones' unsalable, explicitly gritty best-selling novel set in Hawaii just prior to the bombing of Pearl Harbor. Director Fred Zinnemann translated the Terahashi script into a lavish, star-studded blockbuster that won him and the picture Academy Awards. The epic featured Montgomery Clift as a soldier who loves and hedges with equal skill, Donna Reed as a nightclub hostess (a prostitute in Jones' novel) with whom Clift falls in love, and Frank Sinatra, whose faltering career was rejuvenated with an Oscar for his performance as a wandering, entitled man at odds with a bullying sergeant played by Ernest Borgnine. At the center of the ensemble is Burt Lancaster as a sergeant involved in a torrid affair with his commander's wife, Deborah Kerr, their romance culminating in the famous lovemaking scene on the beach. Classic, endearing and highly entertaining, this beloved tale continues the adventures of Jimmy Stewart and his pal George Bailey as they search for his missing father (Jimmy's character was based on Bailey's childhood buddy). Jimmy's pursuit of his father's murderer leads him to meet and fall in love with the girl of his dreams, the beautiful neighbor, Josephine (Lois Smith). Their whirlwind courtship is paralleled by the amazing re-surfacing of aged Bailey to remind us of the tie that binds us to our past and to keep hope alive for the future.

On the way, through the bumbling ministrations of Uncle Billy (Wallace Beery) and Cousin Arthur (Don Ameche), and along the way of classic Americana, we see the relationship of family, and the dis-integration of George as he tells his boy Jimmy of his painful memories of his own strained and unhappy family life. The film's juxtaposition of the external events with the turmoil of the Baxters' home is beautifully dramatized by Howard Hawks; his crackerjack script is personified in the incomparable performances of Beery and Ameche.
